Daniel Dead Sea Hotel

Pesach 2009

Description

Situated at the world's lowest point, on the shores of the extraordinary Dead Sea, the hotel is just a short distance from ancient biblical and historical sites such as the stronghold of Massada. The Daniel offers everything you can imagine to enjoy a fabulous holiday with a Dead Sea difference

The Daniel Dead Sea Hotel has 302 luxury rooms, of which 12 are lavish suites. Each room enjoys views of the desert and the Dead Sea. Cozy and comfortable, rooms are floored with locally produced ceramic tiles, perfect for the desert climate.

A mini-bar and coffee kit ensure that guests needs are met at any time of the day or night while color television with an in-house movie channel provides varied entertainment for all age groups. Direct-dial telephones in the rooms allow easy external calls, and provide a wake-up service and private voice mail. On Club Level, wireless internet access and work desks are also provided. Bathrooms feature fine quality amenities as well as convenient details such as a hairdryer and more.

Pool, Jacuzzi, Turkish Hamm'am, Indoor and open-air Dead Sea pools, Finnish (dry) sauna and steam room. A gym is located on the pool level. The Spa occupies two levels - one comprised of a range of pools and saunas, and the other offering indulgent and luxurious treatments

Kashrut: Rabanut no Kitniyot
