MAMILLA HOTEL JERUSALEM

Sukkot 2010

Description: The Mamilla Hotel, Jerusalem's newest and most fashionable venue, will usher in a new experience of exceptional hospitality in Israel. This elegant lifestyle hotel featuring 194 rooms and suites will be the center of Jerusalem's rich cultural heritage and bustling daily life. The Mamilla Hotel's exquisite contemporary design was created by Piero Lissoni, one of Italy's leading architects and designers. The Mamilla Hotel Jerusalem's unique atmosphere especially on Sukkot 2010 will be complemented by its combination of the trendiest interiors, lighting and sound. The real emphasis will be on a new level of personalized service. Guests will have a choice of a variety of lively venues. Dining possibilities will include a spectacular rooftop restaurant, a fashionable bar, an espresso corner, an engaging wine tasting bar, a lobby cafe and an organic snack and juice bar. Another highlight will be the holistic well-being center with its innovative and cutting edge gym and spa.

Accommodations: The hotel's 194 rooms include Studios, spacious Executive Rooms, Mamilla suites, Residence Suites and a Presidential Suite - all of which come with LCD cable television, wireless internet access, bathtubs, separate showers and personal safes.

Condé Nast Traveller magazine acclaimed the hotel in its 2010 "Hot List," noting that "Staff here ...[are] accommodating and attentive — in fact, each room is assigned a personal host."
